Please comment on yours / your child's experience with your lessons at Lanzon School of Music.

I've loved the opportunity we gave Jude to have drum lessons with you and the music school you have built up over the years. We have been so lucky that Jude has had some wonderful and consistent teachers like Andrew, Salv and recently Matthew. Jude currently plays in two bands, one with friends from school and the other with his sister and her friends, who recently had gig at the Cambridge Street Festival - we were so impressed with their performance.

Jude is becoming a very well rounded musician with his piano playing and trumpet, but his drumming remains his number 1 passion! He performs in Wind Orchestra 1 and Jazz Ensemble at JCCA with trumpet and is looking into joining the percussion group there, only possible for him because of his background with drums, but great to see his passion driving him towards this - it's a 7.30am to 8.30am rehearsal, and that's not something you could get every 15 year old to without some kind of drama, but he's very keen to do it, and will be encouraged all the way!

Thanks again for the great teachers you have and opportunities you give to your students.
